PEACE WITHOUT HUMILIATION.

The melo-dramatic finale of Monday's peace manifestation throws increased responsibility on its actors, and compels the representative public men of the country to redouble their exertions to bring about an arrangement. The conference in the Tigre between General Roca and Governor Tejedor was far too personal and individual in its character to result in anything save discomfiture. The destinies of this country are too great and too important to be jeopardized by mere 'amor propio' or a cool shake-hands between party leaders. The Tigre conference was begun in a hurry, delayed by mistake, and concluded with a blunder. Such meetings and conferences are but child's play. What could be more ridiculous than the opening salute, when one party reminds the other that he did not ask for the meeting, and the other replies in the same strain? Thus it would seem that neither sought for the conference at which both had gone so much out of their way to attend: one by special train, before he had his breakfast, and the other by steamer that almost ran on the bank at Martin Garcia. Dr. Rawson's words to President Avellaneda are indeed prophetic, and should not be lost sight of by either Governor Tejedor or General Roca. Twice San Martin was expatriated! And may not history repeat itself? River Plate politicians, we suppose, are very sharp and very intelligent, but somehow when their respect for their own party surpasses their patriotism, one feels that such men are unfit for the highest trust of the Nation.

The blank disappointment of the public on Monday night may be better imagined than described, when, after such a solemn peace manifestation as that witnessed during the day, the bulletins announced that all peace was out of the question and Governor Tejedor had returned from the Tigre without having arranged anything. At every club in this city there was a fierce reaction, and indignation found expression that it would be unwise to print.

That peace is more secure than ever now, must seem obvious to all who belong to neither party. The compromise is too great to admit of any other solution. President Avellaneda's words to the Peace Committee are too recent to be forgotten; and if 20,000 people on Monday enveloped the National Government House and called for peace, two millions of Argentines hoist the same banner to-day. Let us, therefore, get rid of the nightmare of civil war and revolution, which so checks the healthy flow of industry, trade, commerce and credit. Civil war in this country was never more distant, and peace—solid, permanent peace—never more secure. If the Buenos Ayrean party, in the presence of facts and majorities, asks for too much of the other party, let her diminish her demands; and if the Provincial or Roquista party, counting on their majority, assume a preponderance prejudicial to the nation, let the intellect of the people come to the rescue and devise a measure that will secure not only peace with honor, but peace without humiliation.

All is not lost that is in danger, and the combined efforts of our statesmen and public men will, doubtless, find a peaceful way out of a difficulty which we ourselves created. At the Tigre conference Tejedor and Roca should not have been the sole actors: the Mitres, Alberdis, Sarmientos, Carrils, Rawsons and all of that category should have attended. If we are to have a Tilsit, then at least let us prepare for it; but the impromptu affair on last Monday morning at the Tigre could really have no other 'finale.' Governor Tejedor, active, influential and good-intentioned though he be, is not the whole head, front, brains and intellect of Buenos Ayres. It was a grave blunder his starting off alone to meet a candidate who appears to aim at the mantle of Julius Cæsar. We want a little more circumspection and thought, and what the Argentines term 'tino,' in our public affairs. The country is already on the brink of ruin, through the blunders of our public men. The whole wealth, commerce and brains of the country call for peace. Yet a minority that has nothing to lose, and everything to gain by hostilities, pushes the country to war. The Tejedor party ask for too much, and the Roquista party assume too much. Let the men of B. Ayres find the happy medium, and the danger that besets us will be escaped.

TRIP TO THE CAMP.
No. 7.

The Estancia of San Marco, in the Partido of Chacabuco, is one of the largest properties in that neighbourhood, and belongs to the well-known firm of Messrs. Michl. Duggan Brothers. It is over four square leagues in extent, all wired and fenced, and supplied with every necessary for a first-class establishment of the kind. The estancia house is azotea, with pillared portico, seated in the midst of a choice and well-cared flower garden, and flanked by a dense grove or monte of the choicest fruit trees. A long avenue of tall poplars bisects the monte and extends for about half a mile to the end of the monte, and to a large alfalfar and kitchen-garden, which is cultivated by an Italian, who grows there every vegetable in the country. The outhouses consist of stabling for a thoroughbred English sire horse and pure Durham and Hereford bulls, besides coach-house, galpon, bath-room and quarters for the peones. Around the estancia-house are various fields or parks, wired and fenced, some for the pure-bred Negrette flock and Leicesters and Rambouillets, and others for the pure-bred English cattle, which indeed reminded one of the fields on a farm in England or Ireland. A few squares from the estancia are two large galpones, some of the biggest we have seen in the country, and built on approved plans for the accommodation of shearers and wool-tiers, and for the storage of the wool until ready to be sent to town. Hard by these galpones is the dip for the curing of the flocks, mounted with furnaces, bath, corral and every convenience, and further out is a park where the fine ram flock is kept. To drive round the estancia and visit all the puestos was a task too much for our limited time, but we drove up to one end of the land to have a look at the cattle—some ten thousand head—all in splendid condition, and appearing to us, by the shape of their horns, to be nearly all Mestizo. We visited the puesto called the Noria, which was indeed a novelty, as I think on no other estancias in the country is there such an admirable arrangement for watering cattle. Three immense 'jaguels,' connecting with each other, are pumped by a mule, with an endless band of little tia buckets, called in this country a 'noria;' the water falls into a large 'pileta,' or cistern, and from this flows into a circuitous trough that surrounds the whole quinta, I should say about 200 yards in circumference. This circuitous trough is about a yard deep and a yard wide on the surface, and instead of being made of wood is all of the very best masonry and Roman-cement. The water seemed to be as fresh as in a flowing stream, and as the day was hot the cattle were coming and going from the 'bebida' the whole time we were there. Fine willows have been planted inside the circuit, which gives a nice shade to the troughs, and the water is so clear and good for the cattle that I attributed their high condition to these admirable arrangements for watering the stock. At another end of the land the Messrs. Duggan have put up another 'noria,' but the distances were so long that we could not inspect it. Close to the 'noria' is a puesto with a large galpon, built in the same style as that at the estancia, and here the flocks at this end of the estancia are shorn; and around this puesto was a large field of maize, one of the healthiest signs on every well-managed estancia.

We drove now across the camp to another point on the land, which lies between the estancia San Marcos and the old estancia of Don Miguel; and here we saw the new Catholic Church which the Messrs. Duggan are erecting, for the convenience of the district, as a chapel of ease; it is one of the largest we have seen, and able to accommodate a congregation of 400. The building is tasteful, and the neat Gothic windows, pointed roof and neat spire, with cross pointing upwards, was indeed a relief from such attempts at churches as we saw at Suypacha. This new church of the Messrs Duggan meets a want long felt; and the highest praise is due to these spirited proprietors who, without the aid of subscription or assistance from the neighbours, assume the whole expense and erect a temple which is an ornament, as it is a convenience to the district. Messrs. Ryder and Merry, we believe, were the architects; and the church, when we visited it was finished all to the altar. The drive from the church to the estancia house is about a league and a half; and, notwithstanding the drought, the camps hereabouts had abundance of grass: but Mr. T. Duggan, in view of the winter, was preparing to move the cattle out, so as to secure for the sheep ample pasturage during the winter. On this estancia, we learned from Don Emilio (the book-keeper) there are some 90,000 sheep and 10,000 head of cattle: the lambing season was over and had proved excellent.

Next morning we drove over the Estancia Vieja, some of the finest camps we had seen: and we met Mr Rush (the mayordomo) and Mr. Mulvihill (the mayordomo of San Marcos) gathering the cattle, some 3,500 head, The sight was, indeed, splendid to see: the hills covered with fat cattle, and the lowing herds increased the charm of the drive on that incense-breathing morn. This Estancia Vieja, as it is called, is a square league; and so excellent is the land that it feeds 40,000 sheep besides the cattle, which are now sent to outside camps. The lambing season is just over and has proved splendid, not only on this but on all the other estancias through which I passed. On Mr. John Brown's estancia, at La Chosa, they have just marked 8,000 lambs, out of 20,000 sheep. No wonder that with such increase the farmers become the wealthiest men in this country. There was a certain air of neatness, comfort and prosperity about these estancias of the Messrs. Duggan that bespoke the very best of management. On one end of the land we noted that at every 'puesto' there was a fair 'mount,' with alfalfa field, vegetable garden and 'maizales:' true signs of industry, sobriety and rural comfort. We left the estancia on Friday morning and drove to Salto. The flats were everywhere covered with flocks of sheep, but the hills were bare and the drought pronounced.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.

The following is Dr. Avellaneda's eloquent reply to the petition for Peace presented to him on Monday by the Financial, Commercial and Industrial bodies of the city:—

Gentlemen,

I have seen many public spectacles, but never one like this. Everything in this scene is grand—the orator who has just spoken, the thousands upon thousands who listen to us, the Future which we may so immensely influence by our acts to-day.

I have done nothing whatever to bring about civil war: but being exempt from blame will not diminish real danger. I join in your aspirations so far as my Constitutional faculties and ability as a man allow me. The vain illusions of self-esteem have no hold on mature years, unless they be associated with strict duty.

I had wished that the history of my life could so be written—"His Government took office in the midst of civil war, but it shed no blood, and after six years of toilsome but peaceful rule, he handed to his successor the administration of 14 States, all peaceable orderly and free."

I salute you with your own motto—'Peace for ever!' Peace means luxury, art and science for this opulent city: it also lights the paper lamp in the peasant's hut, to show that the poor man can also be happy, even in his rude toil, when he obeys God's law. Peace is equally necessary for the powerful nation as for the infant State which is liable to fall to pieces on the slightest shock.

This manifestation could not be more solemn. You represent the most vital interests of the Nation, and some of you are the living tradition of Government in this Republic. I should but feebly express my sentiments by assuring you that I accept your proposals. Peace, which is for some mere interest, for others patriotism, is for me a supreme duty. I am bound to preserve peace, to enforce the law uprightly, and transmit the ruling power to my successor peacefully. You come to help me to do this, and I thank you from my heart.

Hear my declaration: You come to ask for Peace and I give it to you, secure and perfect peace, so far as on me depends (tremendous cheering). I will attack noone. I will not move a man or a musket (frantic cheering here interrupted H.E.) unless in the most extreme case, and then with a heavy heart, to preserve order, and avoid giving from my elevated post the sad example of betraying my duties. I will not move a soldier except to defend the threatened existence of the nation, its Laws, and Public Powers. (Again the President was interrupted by the cheers of fully 30,000 men).

I have more to say to you. An improvised speech is like telling a secret: For five years I have been patient and moderate. Why should I cease to be so when it is most necessary for me to be so? Proclaiming rebellion and beating the 'pas de charge' to secure a lease of power is all very well, but human nature revolts at bloodshed when it is not a question of ruling oneself but of enabling another to do so under happier auspices. This line of action is only inspired by the strictest sense of Duty! (Great cheering).

But, let me return to you. The great importance attached to this manifestation is not because of your numbers: 30,000 men can find 30,000 more to face them in battle array. No! it is because YOUR VOICE IS FOR PEACE! (Enthusiastic cheers).

I have said it before: 'A Remington is no argument, and he who raises it without right or reason will always find another noble Argentine breast to oppose him. The cry of discord has been raised and you have found it necessary to rise and stifle it with your presence. You come in peaceable guise, not in arms, and truly I say to you, you shall be heard! (Great cheering)

Speak now in the name of those interests dear alike to the rich banker of Buenos Ayres and the obscure labourer of Jujuy. Speak in the name of Argentine glory, our common patrimony, in the name of the sacrifices of Rivadavia and San Martin (Frantic cheering for some minutes) Speak of the great future of the land of our birth, the hope of which sustains us in our constant toil: speak, and you will find sympathetic tones to answer you, the tones of brothers, till the cry of discord is drowned in the majestic peals of the National Anthem. Fill the air with its consoling words: fling them to the four winds of heaven and States and peoples, candidates and Governments must alike listen to you.

Since you have come on the scene, do not abandon it. Do not allow a Government to spring from the dissensions of the people. Interfere, and confine the combatants within decent bounds. A question of candidates cannot, except by criminal madness, become a question of country. Evil prophets speak of the horrors of war. Well, those horrors would be mercies and blessings compared with the DISRUPTION OF THE REPUBLIC. (Enthusiastic cheering).

Do you sincerely wish for peace? (cries of yes, yes, we do) Constitutional peace? If you do, then raise your voice and tell the whole republic that there must be peace, and peace there will be. I have always believed in peace, as the Government is stronger than the anarchists, and there is nothing in the Nation superior to the nation itself. More than ever do I now believe in it, since you have come to help me.

I conclude. Wave high your banner, speak to your fellow citizens, and you will find that the new and vast horizon opening to our country can not be clouded by the storm of a day.

The latest European papers by the above steamers are of 15th ult, from which we extract as follows:—

The whole Liberal Press of England insists that Mr. Gladstone shall be the new Prime Minister, and calls on Her Majesty to send for him. Two of Lord Beaconsfield's most staunch adherents—Lord Lytton, Viceroy of India, and Sir Austin Layard, Ambassador at Constantinople—have already resigned. The Duke of Argyll is spoken of as likely to replace Lord Lytton. It is feared that the training ship Atalanta has been lost at sea, with 300 souls on board. The last heard of her was on 31st January, when she sailed from the Bermudas. The British N. American squadron have gone in search of her.

The Morning Post (Liberal) says that Lord Granville will probably be the first Her Majesty will call, to form the new Cabinet.

Telegrams from Singapore confirm the news of the murder of the French citizen, M. Wallon, by the natives of Sumatra: he and a friend, also murdered, were on a scientific expedition. The Governor of Hatchin sent troops after the assassins.

War between China and Russia is probable. The latter Power is about to send five more war vessels to the Pacific. The very latest news in St. Petersburg is that China wishes to reopen negotiations about Kouldja.

The King of Siam has offered to defend Macao for Portugal, in case the Chinese attack it.

There was a rumour in Paris last night that the Empress of Russia was dead. Another member of the Imperial family is locked up with a sentinel at his door, the Government holding proofs of his complicity with the Nihilists: The prisoner is said to be the Grand Duke Constantine, the Czar's brother.

The Sultan of Turkey considers it 'all up' with him now that the Liberals are in power in England, and he is trying to draw closer to Austria, and the Turkish Ambassador at Vienna has been ordered to bring about an alliance, if possible.

Nearly all the Councils General in France have protested against the measures against the Jesuits. The vigorous and eloquent protest of the Archbishop of Tours and his clergy has resounded over all France. The protest in question says the Jesuits are the glory of the Church, the glory of France, and the terror of the impious, and warns the Government that the three Governments which previously tried to expel the Jesuits thereby brought about their own fall.

At Lille there was a great popular demonstration in favour of the Jesuits, and the Superior told the people that force alone should take them from their schools, adding that the venerable Archbishop of Cambray had promised to take over all the classes himself, in case of extremity.

The utterances of the Bishops have created such a sensation that the Government is thinking of measures to stop them.

The second reading of the Army Bill passed in the German Parliament: also Deputy Richter's amendment compelling all clergymen not exempted to serve in the Reserve army. Count Moltke voted for this amendment. Prince Bismarck's resignation is again discussed by the German and foreign Press. It is stated to have been only a manoeuvre to secure again for Prussia the preponderance in the Federal Council which was abandoned purely to secure the confidence of the other German States. The Emperor refuses to accept the Prince's resignation, but all expect that Bismarck will gain his point in the end.

The Emperor of Austria has conferred the Grand Cross of Leopold on Baron Hoffman, on his resiguing the Finance portfolio. Szlavy, President of the Hungarian Chamber of Deputies, replaces Baron Hoffman.

His Holiness the Pope, in an Allocution delivered on the 11th ult., referred to affairs in France, and declared that its Government is preparing a deplorable future for that country.

The Times of 10th April gives the following summary of the elections to that date:—

Liberal Members	379
Conservative Members	208
Actual Liberal majority	171

These results are arrived at by counting the Home Rulers among the Liberals. A more exact statement shows:—

Liberals	336

THE ATHLETIC SPORTS.

The Ninth Half Yearly competition Meeting of the B. A. Junior Athletic Society was held on Thursday, the 6th inst., on the ground of the B. A. C. Club, Palermo, and was the most successful that this Society has held. The weather was fine, the ground was in good condition, the programme was very well filled up, and the competition in most of the events was very keen.

The programme commenced with—

High Jump Running

There was a tie between these two for first, as neither of them could pass 4 ft. 9 inch., but as the latter would not try it over again, the former won.

Flat Race 150 yards, for Boys under 15 years.

Flat Race, 100 yards.

1st, A J Underwood, 2nd, R. R. Edgar. This was won by about 3 yds, 6 competitors. Time 11 secs.

Flat Race, 1 mile.

1st, A W Boote; 2nd, H C Caldwell; 3rd, W A Murning. Caldwell had the lead for a round, when Boote came to the front and won by about 30 yds. The time was the best that it ever was done in by the Juniors, 5 min. 17 secs.

Putting the Shot.

1st, J A Huggins, who was handicapped 6 inch, but won easily with 37 ft. 9½ inch.

Length Jump Running, Boys under 12 years.

Flat Race, 440 yards.

1st, A J Underwood; 2nd, R. Grant. The former took the lead, and kept it the whole way, winning by 5 yards. Time 58 secs.

Length Jump Standing.

Tug of War.

Flat Race, 4 miles.

1st, A Wilkinson. W T Ryan took the lead and got a long distance ahead, but gave up after running two miles. Wilkinson and Tucker kept together the whole way till within 50 yards of the winning post, when both put on a spurt and Wilkinson won by 2 yards. Time 36min. 40 secs.

The Second Part commenced with—

1st, J Anthony; 2nd, A J Edgar; 3rd J Wilson. Won by 3 yards, all ran well. In this, as in the other races for boys under 12 and 15 years, start was given according to age.

Flat Race, 880 yards.

1st, H Thompson; 2nd, R Grant; 3rd, W A Murning. The latter had the lead for half the distance, but was passed by Thompson, who won by 15 yards from Grant, who had a splendid race with Murning for second place. Time 2 min. 28 secs.

Flat Race, 200 yards.

1st, A J Underwood; 2nd, J Begg. Underwood won easily, but there was a dead heat for second place between J Begg and A Wilkinson, they therefore had to run it over again and Begg won.

Pole-Leaping.

1st, J R Martindale; 2nd, C Erhart; 3rd, A J Underwood. This was a long time in being decided, as the competition was very keen, but at length Martindale won with a leap of 8 ft.

Hurdle Race, 120 yards

1st, A J Underwood; 2nd R R Edgar. Both jumped the last hurdle together and Underwood won in the run in, by 2 yards.

Walking Match, 1 mile.

1st, A W Boote; 2nd, R Grant. This was won by 3 yards, both walked very well.

Three-Legged Race, 100 yards.

1st, J R Martindale and H Van Houten; 2nd, R R Edgar and A W Marshall. This was a very good event, 18 competitors started.

With this event, the programme finished, and the prizes, which numbered over fifty, and had attracted great attention, were presented by some of the ladies to the successful competitors.

The number of entries and of spectators far surpassed any previous meeting, and the appearance of the Grand Stand reminded us of the Senior Athletic Sports in their best days.

A husband telegraphed to his wife:—'What have you for breakfst, and how is the baby?' The answer came:—'Buckwheat cakes and the measles.'

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was another painfully exciting day, especially for a journalist who did not get to bed till half-past one a.m. yesterday morning, after getting up a beautiful bulletin with the news of the fiasco at the Tigre. By some mischance, however, said bulletin was not put inside the papers for the camp and suburbs, so our city readers had the news all to themselves. In spite of the said fiasco, people in general believed more firmly in peace than ever yesterday, and Congress is now looked to to settle the matter. A long-headed subscriber from the camp put the thing in a nutshell yesterday in our office; he said—"The Peace Meeting went to the wrong shops on Monday. What's the use of going to Avellaneda, Tejedor, or Roca? Go to the Electoral College and ask them not to elect Roca, and the matter is settled." There is something in this, but we believe the Electoral Collegians themselves are not quite settled yet. We'll all be settled and done for soon if this killing electioneering excitement is not put a stop to.

The very latest political news yesterday evening was that a Committee of Honour, comprising Messrs. Sarmiento, Mitre, Alberdi, Lopez, Rawson, Gorostiaga, Emilio Fernandez and Frias had been invited to a conference in the Red House with President Avellaneda. The Minister of War and Mr Saturnine Unzue left at 3 o'clock in an express train for Campana, to confer with General Roca, who has stopped there. It is now said that Roca will confer with several Congressmen of his party and accept their decision. The red flag hoisted on the Pilcomayo when Governor Tejedor left her, and which the revolutionary Press made so much of as 'the red flag', was simply the flag used to 'pipe to dinner.' (Ha! Ha! Ha!) Governor Iriondo of Santa Fe has telegraphed to President Avellaneda explaining that a recent telegram of his, which was rather stiff in the grammar, meant nothing disrespectful to Congress or the National Government.

The Cordillera and Poitou's dates from Europe are to 15th. There is a row brewing in France about the Jesuits; every Council-General in the country, except one, protested against the measures adopted against the Jesuits, and all the French Bishops have vigorously espoused their cause. Public meetings have been held at Lisle and other places in favour of the Jesuits. The Pope has declared that the Republican Government of France is preparing a dreadful future for that country. In Germany they added a clause to the new Army Bill, which is now Law, compelling all clergymen to serve in the Reserve Army. The saddest news of all is that the poor Sublime Porte has received a sad nervous shock by the Liberal victory in England: he knows that his last hour is at hand, and that 500 Prophets with or without beards, will be impotent to save him from his friend Gladstone.

The Tribuna of Monday had a nice translation of part of Tommy Moore's 'Paradise and the Peri, also of a sonnet of Byron. It is pleasant to see Argentine literati so well up in our greatest poets.

The National Government has defined by decree the 'ribera' boundaries of the Chubut Colony, a measure very much required.

Dr. Tamini's article in the Nacion on the change of Government in England is much praised: it betrays a knowledge of British institutions somewhat rare amongst foreigners.

The Rev. James Smith will preach on Sunday next at the Cabaña, district of Canuelas, at noon. There will be morning and evening service as usual at the Scotch Church, but no Sunday School, as the morning service will be adapted for children.

The Medical Review declares that the health of the city is by no means good, and a great part of the increase of illness it attributes to the worry and excitement caused by the elections, Tiro reviews, meetings &c., incidental to the political situation. We firmly believe our medical colleague: we may all make our wills and order our coffins if some one fit to be the next President does not turn up soon.

We welcome to the shores of the Plate the well-known Herr Armand Goegg, former Minister of Finance in the grand Duchy of Baden in 1848. The name of this gentleman is closely connected with the political events of that year. Since then times have changed, and M. Goegg was one of the most strenuous supporters of German Unity. Who has not heard of the lectures delivered all over the world by this distinguished gentleman?

Yesterday we had a visit from the renowned Professor Hermann, who arrived up in the Cosmos, and only pays us now a flying attention, as he leaves for Rio in the Poitou on the 19th inst. for Rio, where he will remain until the end of June and then return to the Plate, to make his appearance in the Colon and charm and astonish the River Plate public, as he did 13 years ago. Nothing in life can rival this wizard's art. Whilst in our office he turned out of a subscriber's hat a lot of thousand dollar bills that would cover all the wool money for a large estancia. Professor Hermann is stopping at his brother-in-law's, the renowned Dr. Ernest, and invites all his old friends to call and see him.

The Printers' Ball will come off on Saturday next. It is a curious fact that printers are the best and most graceful dancers of all the industrial gremios. So long as there is a printer available in a ball-room the fair sex will dance with no other man.

A camp subscriber has called our attention to the very munificent sums contributed by the Jews in the U. States to the Irish Relief Fund. Friendship and goodwill have always existed between the Irish and the Jews, and whilst the latter have been senselessly persecuted in almost every country in the world, Ireland has invariably sympathised with them in their unmerited sufferings.

Dr. Nelson's funeral took place on Sunday; Drs. Fair and Hiron were the only brother professionals present; and although Dr. Nelson was a well-known physician, and of the oldest standing, his fellow-countrymen did not attend, and the friends at the funeral were chiefly Americans. The Rev. Mr. Thompson, American clergyman, officiated.

We received a letter yesterday for Mr. Nicholas Hogan; it came from the United States, and lay at the Estacion Parish by mistake.

A Montevidean paper asserts that several patriots from this side of the river have interviewed Lopez Jordan at Palmira, to try and induce him to take a hand in another little game of revolution, but the General, it is believed, gave his visitors the cold shoulder.

We regret to read in our morning colleagues that the performance of Faust at the Colon Theatre was a quite too awfully shocking 'fiasco,' Mephistopheles was worst, Siebel was worse, and even Margarita herself is set down as on the very edge of bad, whilst Faust was only mixed middling. The only ones who came 'ileso' out of the affair were the baritone and the members of the chorus: All night the public and the 'claque' kept up a medley of hisses and applause, but finally the former won the day. Here's a pretty how do you do, at the very opening of the 'frenetico entusiasmo' season!

We hear there are some magnificent Irish bulls expected here shortly; they are of the famed 'Island' breed (Wexford) the purest and best in Ireland, being derived from the Booth and other famous English strains. At a recent fair the highest prices were given for these animals, for export to Buenos Aires.

The Politeama was crowded with children on Sunday in the day time, and at night there was a full audience to see Mr Colantony play Hamlet, which he did very well indeed.

Our new colleague La Exposicion, will appear in a day or two; it will be all about the Exhibition in September, not a line of politics (bravissimo!) and all the editors in town have been asked to collaborate. If we can find half an hour's spare time between this and September, we shall be glad to turn off something for our new contemporary; but at the same time, are ready to lay 100 to 1 in hats that we shall be unable to find that half hour.

In Santiago del Estero maize is now selling at 3 Bolivian dollars the almud, and wheat is quite as dear.

A native contemporary says that the damages in the Plato and Bessel affair have been set down at £2,000.

We hear that Dr. Chas is about to resign his seat in the Municipality: This will leave only five members in the Corporation.

Dr. Cortinez took the oaths on Saturday last, when he assumed the Finance portefolio.

Goodness gracious! Fifteen new lawyers were received yesterday. Where are the new clients to come from? Fifteen Ausonian peasant immigrants are worth more to the country than 5,000, aye than 50,000, new lawyers.

The learned dogs at the Politeama are soon to have rivals in the shape of learned cats which will be here next week and perform in Palermo

The Argentine police are stepping out. In addition to Commissary Biedma's clever capture of Sanchez, Commissary Basso has laid hands on a man named Rodriguez who committed a dreadful murder over six years ago: he was enjoying his dinner in a cafe when Justice overtook him.

The Tiny craft Leon de Caprera was launched on Monday: she will stop a week at Montevideo on her way to the Mediterranean.

The Customs receipts of Montevideo were better last month—440,000 patacons.

The Bolsa opened this morning convulsed with the exciting events which weigh so tremendously on the market. Gold that ran down 45 cents yesterday under the conviction that all would be arranged opened this morning at 30.90, and advanced five cents up to the closing hour; indeed it speaks for the great confidence of our merchants and bankers in the country and its future that gold did not rise more. The news spread by the bulletins was still of a character to inspire peace. It was known that Don Manuel Ocampo, Don Eduardo Madero, Dr T Garcia and Dr V de la Plaza, late Minister of Hacienda, had left town last night by special train for the Tigre to confer with Roca, and that these gentlemen had a long and animated conference with him, and only arrived back in town at half past 4 o'clock this morning. Dr Plaza and Mr Edward Madero, we hear, were the great spokesmen of Buenos Aires at this memorable conference, General Roca seemed to be much moved, but replied that he was too far pledged with his party to offer more than the Vice-Presidency to Governor Tejedor, and a mixed conciliatory Cabinet.

President Avellaneda, after the return of Governor Tejedor, wrote a long letter to General Roca explaining to him the part which patriotism called him to act. The general feeling in the market to-day was that no matter what position General Roca takes now President Avellaneda and a majority in Congress would no longer be with him, and matters have been pushed to such an extremity that affairs would now find their level without the interference of the General or his unyielding party. A special meeting at the National Government House was called to-day for two o'clock by President Avellaneda, and all the representative Argentines who figured in yesterday's demonstration were invited to attend. The commercial community of the Plate has therefore not lost all hope of an amicable arrangement, which will be brought about by the President and Congress, as the interests compromised in this great question were only understood by Congress after the affair of yesterday. Yesterday at half past 4 o'clock 50,000 pats gold were offered at 30.45, and no one to buy, which shows how the market then stood. This afternoon after 2 o'clock gold gold ruled weaker, and sellers were offering at 30.85.

Gold opened with a jump at 30.90, the sales cash reached 143,351, and closed at 30.95. For the end of the month over half a million of patacones sold opening at 30.90 and closing at 30.85. For June and July at 30.80. The sales during hours amounted to 911,351. It was quite evident from the tone of the market that merchants were not buying and that the operations of the day were purely amongst speculators.

Cedulas ruled slightly easier than yesterday and dropped from 86½ to ½. Yesterday holders asked 86. For the end of the month they were done at 86½. Treasury Bills, spite of the political upheaving, closed firm at 73, having dropped to 77½, and New Nat. Bonds of 1876 were done at their former figure 75.

Although the Plate sailed to-day there was very little exchange done for her, and the rates rule about the same. The Provincial Bank drew up to the close of the week £100,000 and took a like amount at 5,25 to 27 Paris, and 50d London, but since then has done little.

The latest telegram from Antwerp, which will be found in another column, shows a severe reaction in wool, and washed wool is down one franc, which is a serious matter.

The Hamburg steamer Parnagua cleared yesterday, taking 10 passengers, 100 bales and 25,000 salted hides. The Argentina is the next steamer of the same line, and is due here about 1st June.

Don Fernando Brunkhorst, the leading barraquero of the Plaza Once, and Mr Charles Lix Klett jr., the representative in the Plate of Messrs. H A Grau & Co. of Tourcoing and Antwerp, both leave for Europe in the Hohenzollern on 25th inst.

The Telegraph board on the Bolsa was covered to-day with long adhesive peace telegrams from the various Bolsas and markets throughout the Republic. It was the first time that we have seen the telegrams from the Interior markets posted on 'Change.

Discount brokers report that all the banks stopped discounting to-day, owing to the political state of affairs.

The American mails were delivered to-day, and we note in the circulars that the shipments of pine to 30th March were two millions of feet and 1½ million loading.

At afterhours gold ruled much weaker, sellers offering at 30,75, no buyers; and sales made for October, Nov. and Dec. at 30.55. President Avellaneda sent a special invitation to Dn Emilio Fernandez, President of the Bolsa, to attend the meeting to-day. This is the first time that the President of the Bolsa has been invited to a Cabinet Meeting, and it speaks well for the improved turn in affairs. No man in Buenos Aires could fill better or more worthily the high position of President of the Bolsa than Sr Dn Emilio Fernandez, whose sound judgment is worth more than the opinions of lawyers and politicians. The news on 'Change was that there will be a change in the Ministry, General Mitre for War and Mr Sarmiento Education. Others said that whatever the 'Comision de Honor' of to-day decides on General Roca will accept. En fin things look on the mend.

Exchange on Montevideo was done to-day at 1½ o/o prem., at which price takers for a limited amount still remain.

European exchange is quite nominal. After the departure of the Plato, there will be no mail until the 17th inst. For this packet we quote 49¼d to 49⅜d drawers, but takers show little interest.

One well-known capitalist offered 80 for 100,000 Nat. Bonds conditioned that terms were arranged.

The Bessel will sail on 13th for Havre, and has already her cargo engaged.

The Tycho Brahe came up to-day, and Capt. Miller was welcomed on 'Change.

The Bank balance-sheet was out this morning and will be found at foot; it is most important, as showing the state of the market, but we are all so enveloped in politics that we have no time for anything save trashy bulletins which live but for the moment.

The sale of a lot of 5,000 dry hides is spoken of, but on reserved terms; also 600 heavy B. Aires hides at 63 rls.

We regret to announce the arrival in the market of some epidemia cow hides, a very bad beginning for the winter season, and from all we gather from farmers in town, things in the camp look very bad and flocks of sheep are being moved in every direction; the drought appears to be worse in the South than in the North, but we have seen men from Pavon and Arroyo Medio who have come inside to look for land for their flocks, as the camps up there are even worse than in Areco or Mercedes. The drought is even more alarming than our politics; such weather for another fortnight, and Roca and Tejedor will have nothing to fight about.

There was a drop in the sheepskin market this morning, and some wools bought outside coming to market now cannot be sold at prices to cover. Inferior wool that a week ago moved off easily at $160 can now with difficulty be sold at 87. One lot of good mestiza wool was sold this morning in the South Market at 120 m/c. Dry cow hides are now down to $180 per pesada, and good ones sell at 195 m/c, and a good lot of sheepskins sold at 36½ rls.

B. Aires, Mayo 7 de 1880.

V. F. Lopez.

M. Cuyar, Inspector. B. Gayan, Secretario.

Wool—

Demand continues large to such an extent that supplies can hardly keep pace with it. The present period usually characterised by large arrivals and a comparative absence of demand has this year been quite the reverse, and our stock is kept within narrow limits. Large transactions are daily reported and prices rule strongly in sellers' favour. The value of an average Buenos Aires primera 30 to 31 o/o must be quoted now at from fs.1.90 to fs.1.95, and buyers seem ready to continue operating roundly on this basis.

Large as the late advance in this market has been, it appears, from telegrams received from the River Plate that prices at the source at present even exceed those current here, hence buyers find it advantageous to secure floating parcels which can be realised by importers at a handsome profit though cheaper than could be bought at the places of production, and it is owing to this fact that a very extensive business has been done to arrive, quite a new feature in this market.

The following is our statistical position:—

	Bales.	Bales.
Arrivals from Buenos Aires	10,241
Stock on 25th March		9,482
" Montevideo	1,275
" Rivers	45	11,361
Sales by private contract	5,338 bls.	21,043
Public sales	—
Transit	3,823	8,711
Stock to-day		12,332

Our next public auctions are fixed to open either on the 26th, 27th, or 28th inst. The quantity to be brought forward on the occasion is not yet positively known, but we do not expect it will exceed about 15,000 bales.

Sheepskins—

Hides—

We have to report a slightly increased demand with perhaps a somewhat better feeling in consequence, though prices are but indifferently held.

Arrivals of new season saladero ox have come in on a tolerably liberal scale, B. Aires are selling slowly at f.83, for 20-25 kilos, and f.89 for 25-52 kilos.

The supply of dry hides continues limited and for this description there is an almost absolute absence of demand.

No sales to arrive.

Killings in the River Plate on first instant amounted to 8,410,000 against 900,000 on the same date last year.

Tallow—

The market remains substantially in the same state as we described it in our last issue, dull and with a decidedly downward tendency. A small sale of mutton has been effected at f.81½ and according to this the value of beef should not exceed f.53 to f.53½. Sales 70 hogsheads mutton. Stock 25 pipes, 400 hogsheads beef, and 165 pipes, 272 hogsheads mutton.

The Porteño published a Bulletin at a late hour yesterday evening, announcing that the conference between President Avellaneda and the Peace Committee has given no hopes of a peaceful solution. It also publishes a decree of Governor Tejedor authorizing a $50,000,000 loan.

To-morrow the Governor will issue two decrees—one for mobilizing the National Guards, the other appointing military inspectors, &c.

Note—The Nacion Bulletin, published at the same hour, says there is nothing serious to be apprehended—that peaceable arrangements are fully expected.

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Rodnent Hall. Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

Muy importante para el Publico.

Posedo de la mayor ansiedad, y con el debido respecto al Publico, apelo muy encarecidamente a toda clase de personas, para que se dignen prestarme su apoyo, dando a conocer como todos las malas y aun peligrosas falsificaciones de mis medicinas, hechas principalmente en Nueva York, de que tengan conocimiento.

Especuladores nada escrupulosos adquieren esta broza a un precio sumamente bajo, y la venden como si fuera mis genuinas píldoras y ungüento, logrando con esto reprobado trafico una enorme ganancia.

Ninguno de los expresados medicamentos son genuinos, si no llevan en el rotulo de cada boto y caja la inscripcion siguiente: Holloway's Pills and Ointment, 533, Oxford Street, London, y el sello del Gobierno Britanico, con las palabras Holloway's Pills and Ointment, grabadas en el.

Las personas que tengan la bondad de informar de algun traficante que venda las enunciadas medicinas falsas, seran muy bien remuneradas, y nunca, ni en circumstancia alguna, se publicaran sus nombres.
